

AUDITIONS

Auditions will be held June 11 & 12, 7:00 – 9:00 pm

DRAMATIZED BY CHRISTOPHER SERGEL
FROM THE BOOK BY HARPER LEE
DIRECTED BY DEBBIE HARMON FERRY

Scout, a young girl in a quiet southern town, is about to experience dramatic events that will affect the rest of her life. Set in 1935, this play illustrates the social issues of this time period as the black people of the community have a special feeling about Scout's father. In her youthful innocence, she does not know why. Atticus, a lawyer, explains that he is defending a young Negro wrongfully accused of a grave crime. Atticus fights his legal battle with a result that is part defeat, part triumph. This dramatization of the touching classic tale is a meaningful work of art.

AUDITIONS

Auditions will consist of cold reading from the script.

Scripts are available in the box office if you would like to prepare ahead of time.

Please arrive at least ten minutes prior to the start of auditions to fill out paperwork.

Photos and resumes are welcome but not necessary.

IMPORTANT: Bring a complete list of conflict dates.

You only need to attend one day of auditions.

Callbacks (Wednesday June 14th) will be by invitation.
