RE: “To Kill a Mockingbird” opens September 1st

Dramatized by Christopher Sergel
From the book by Harper Lee
Directed by Debbie Harmon Ferry

Scout (Brooke Zollinger), a young girl in a quiet southern town, is about to experience dramatic events that will affect the rest of her life. Set in 1935, this play illustrates the social issues of this time period as the black people of the community have a special feeling about Scout's father. In her youthful innocence, she does not know why. Atticus (Tum Jaeger), a lawyer, explains that he is defending a young Negro (Antoine Johnson as Tom Robinson) wrongfully accused of a grave crime. Atticus fights his legal battle with a result that is part defeat, part triumph. This dramatization of the touching classic tale is a meaningful work of art.

Featuring: Meridith Symons as the Adult Jean Louise, Time Jaeger as Atticus, Brooke Zollinger as Scout, Robby Staats as Jem, Will Sandberg as Dill, Viola Pruitt as Calpurnia, and Antoine Johnson as Tom Robinson.

Other cast members include: Payton Adamski, Barbara Curtis, Kenneth Dembo, Jade Everage, Roy Feiring, Adam Gray, Kevin Hamler-Dupras, Steve Horton, Kelly Janssen, Eric Sage, Brandon Webster, & Cathy Willoughby
