RE: Rabbit Hole
By David Lindsay-Abaire
Directed by Seth Renne

Gallery Theater will present Rabbit Hole opening March 12 and running through April 3 in the arena theater. Becca and Howie Corbett have everything a family could want, until a life-shattering accident turns their world upside down and leaves the couple driving perilously apart. Rabbit Hole charts their search for comfort in the darkest of places and for a path that will lead them back into the light. This play contains strong language and discretion is advised. There will be no late seating and no reentry during the performance.

Winner of the 2007 Pulitzer Prize, "David Lindsay-Abaire has crafted a drama that's not just a departure but a revelation—an intensely emotional examination of grief, laced with wit, insightfulness, compassion and searing honesty." —Variety. "Grade: A! A transcendent and deeply affecting new play, which shifts perfectly from hilarity to grief." —Entertainment Weekly. "Rabbit Hole presents a tragedy and its consequences with utter candor, and without sentimentality. The dialogue is most impressive for capturing the awkwardness and pain of thinking people faced with an unthinkable situation—and eventually, their capacity for survival, and even hope." —USA Today. "

Dawn Graff-Haight will moderate talk-back sessions immediately following the show on March 13, 19, 28 & April 2.
